In this timely and inspirational volume, authors from diverse disciplines consider and affirm the many places across curriculum and context where hope and joy are or can be strong and vibrant. Grounded in the life-affirming ideals of renowned education philosopher and school founder Daisaku Ikeda, Hope and Joy in Education will reenergize educational research, theory, and practice. Ultimately, the book reminds readers that the classroom is still a magical space, brimming with the brilliant and creative energy of young people. The book was published by Teachers College Press in association with the Ikeda Center for Peace, Learning, and Dialogue.
